The Developmental Disabilities Nurses of New Hampshire (DDNNH) is a professional group of nurses working in support of individuals with developmental disabilities. The group meets the third Tuesday of the month at the New Hampshire Hospital Association in Concord, NH from 9:30AM – 11:30AM (unless otherwise noted). Our monthly meeting includes informational updates on issues that impact DD nursing practice, professional development, and peer support.

The DDNNH is an active network of the national Developmental Disabilities Nurses Association (DDNA).

Benefits of membership include

- Nursing fellowship and peer support with DDNNH Preceptor Network
- DDNA conference scholarship opportunity
- Professional development with CEU offerings
- Updated practice and regulatory news
- Participation in policy formation
- Information about up-coming training events

DDNNH is the proud sponsor of the Jeanne L. Fitts, ARNP annual memorial DDNA conference scholarship, awarded to the DDNA Liaison.

Thank you for your support of the DDNNH!
