

Premium Assistance and the Medically Frail

Medically Frail Choice of ABP or Standard Medicaid

Medically frail individuals cannot be in the PAP

But, they are still eligible for coverage through Medicaid managed care.

As required by the Affordable Care Act (ACA), Medically Frail beneficiaries must be offered a choice of the Medicaid Standard benefit package or the ABP.

Differences Between Medicaid Standard and ABP benefits

Health Benefit Differences	Medicaid Standard	ABP
Access to ongoing long-term care services (e.g. , nursing homes)
Help with everyday tasks, like bathing, getting dressed, and preparing meals
Services to help the enrollee stop using drugs or alcohol
Limits on the number of visits for some services, like care in a hospital outpatient clinic but there are no limits on emergency care, urgent care, or walk-in care
Inpatient Hospital Care
Prescription Drugs

How Do I Identify as Medically Frail?

Medically Frail Individuals

Individuals will be identified as medically frail if they indicate that they either:

1. Have a physical, mental or emotional condition that causes limitations in daily activities; or,
2. Reside in a medical facility or nursing home

Only Enrollees Can Identify Themselves as Medically Frail

If you believe you are medically frail, please go to www.nheasy.nh.gov or call 844-275-3447 and tell us so that we can make sure you get the types of benefits you need.

You can also send us a letter at Central Scanning Unit, P.O. Box 1810, Concord, NH 03301.

You can do this at any time during the year.
