

NEW HAMPSHIRE VOLUNTARY RECOVERY HOUSE REGISTRY

Updated 06/06/2024

DISCLAIMER: Voluntary registration of a Recovery House on this registry does not imply endorsement of that house by the NH Department of Health and Human Services. Registration must be renewed annually, thirty days prior to expiration date.

CONSUMER ADVICE: Individuals seeking Recovery Housing should review "Recovery Housing: How to Find Recovery Housing" for tips on how to choose a recovery home that's right for you: <https://www.dhhs.nh.gov/sites/g/files/ehbemt476/files/inline-documents/sonh/recoveryhousing.pdf>
NH Coalition of Recovery Residences (NHCORR) certified means that the recovery house meets national standards for recovery residences: <https://narronline.org/affiliate-services/standards-and-certification-program/>. Information about NHCORR can be found here: <https://www.nhcorr.com>

COMPLAINTS: To file a complaint about a Recovery House, please visit this website and follow procedures described there: <https://www.dhhs.nh.gov/programs-services/health-care/recovery-housing>
